

IMS POLICY

(ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 & ISO 45001:2018)

ANAR CHEMICALS LLP is committed to manufacture Dyes, Pigments, and Intermediates & related Speciality Chemicals products through innovation & continual improvement in all its business processes including Quality, Environment, and Occupational Health & Safety management.

Anar Group is committed to

- Accomplish this through excellence in product stewardship, process management and innovation, supported by compliance with system, applicable statutory and specific requirements of Stake holders to the utmost satisfaction of customers.
- Harmonize Quality, Health, Safety & Environment Management by carrying out potential Risk - Environment assessment and optimize use of resources through Recovery, Reuse & Recycle process.
- Comply to the required standards, procedures, contingency measures, statutory requirement and management system in order to ensure operation are managed safely, ecologically sustainable manner
- Providing safe and healthy working conditions and conducting all operations safely to prevent work related injury and ill health to persons, damage to property and environment, ensuring security and safety of life and adverse Environmental impacts.

Upgrading the competence, awareness, skills and motivation of workers and ensuring participation and consultation of workers.

S/d